

ERRORS BEHIND JOHNS GIVE LYNCHBURG GAME

Neither Pitcher Was Hit Hard,
but Vernuelle Had Better Support.

LOCALS SCORED FIRST

Smith and Wallace Each Scored a Run After Walking to First.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, Va., July 19.—Vernuelle proved to be an enigma for the Colts today, and the throwers won the game easily, the score being 4 to 2. Johns, a recruit, who pitched from the offside, was on the mound for Richmond, and he pitched a good game. With good support he would have won his game. Certainly it should have been closer.

Both teams were a trifle off in the fielding, but the misplays of the Colts were the more costly. Richmond started off with the run-getting, Wallace walked and went down on Timman's sacrifice. Sandy hit for two runs, scoring Wallace. Stiller hit to Hooker, who nailed Sandherr at the plate, but Pratt dropped the throw.

Colts Were Dangerous.
This was all the run-getting for the Colts, but they were mighty dangerous four or five times, especially in the eighth, when the bases were filled with one down. Seiber fouled off a dozen good ones, and missed for a fan, while Keifer hit an easy one to Vernuelle.

A chase on balls to Smith in the second, Stanley Bigbie's at first, and Lip's leave over first made the local's first run. Pratt stole, and, when Zeigler singled to center, was safe at home on Keifer's bungle of a good throw from Wallace. Zeigler went to third on the error and scored on Vernuelle's drive to right. In the eighth the Shoemakers sewed up the game with Hooker's line fly over Leon's head. He went to third on Smith's sacrifice, while Johns threw wide and scored on Pratt's bunt for a squeeze. A double-header will be played to-day.

CLOSE GAME WON BY THE LEADERS

Doane and Foxen Are Pitted in Game Lost by Wolf's

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., July 19.—In a game that was anybody's until the last man was nailed, the Tigers defeated the Trappers, capturing a victory by the score of 3 to 2.

Better fielding on the part of the Tigers throughout the entire game, aided by Wolf's critical error in right hand, gave the Trappers but two rallies, neither of which was earned. The score:

TARS BAT WALKER FOR 12 SAFETIES

Released Richmond Pitcher Puts Up Poor Exhibition for Red Sox.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, Va., July 19.—In a ragged, poorly played game, the Red Sox dropped the opener to Norfolk to-day. The contest was full of Chinese plays throughout the whole nine innings.

While Danville had the legend of the proposition in the error column, the Tars gave Pitcher Fox very bad support. The twirling of Fox was the one redeeming feature. He pitched a steady, consistent game throughout, and would in all probability have secured a shut-out but for the ragged work behind him. He was very effective at critical stages, and never passed a man, allowing but five scattered hits.

Danville's new acquisition from Richmond, gave a rather sorry exhibition, yielding twelve hits and walking five men, four of whom scored. The batting of Mullaney, centre fielder for the visitors, was one of the features, securing three hits out of four times at the bat. Nearly all of the errors figured in the run-getting, and the reporters' score-book for the game looks like a check for a last year's undershirt at a Chicago wash shop. The score:

PLAY SEVEN INNINGS

NEW YORK, July 19.—New York and St. Louis divided a double-header to-day, the first game, which went sixteen innings, equalling a record established on the Polo Grounds last year. This contest which the visitors won, 4 to 2, was the second sixteen-inning game ever played by major league teams here. Harmon, recently of Shreveport (Texas League) team, was St. Louis' pitcher in the long even, and after the third inning New York could not score on him. In the second game Ames was in splendid form, and his great pitching enabled New York to break even on the tie. The fans counted men in seven innings. The score:
